Residents angry over 'sex park'

Dimpho Mongae

MAFIKENG - A park situated at the corners of Gembok and Akasia streets in Golfview has reportedly become a haven for sexual scenes by couples who are deliberately ignore requests by residents in the area to stop their actions.

Complaining local resident told Mafikeng Mail last week that for the past ten years they have had to deal with sleepless nights because of loud music, swearing and fights that take place at the park.

They say that the "ugly" activities have also deterred them from (Continued on page 3)

'PTT hit list' revealed

MAFIKENG - As part of its ongoing attempts to wrestle the African National Congress from the controversial provincial task team, the group of disgruntled ANC members this week released a document dubbed the PTT "hit list" in which dozens of ANC leaders in the province have been removed from their positions by the task team.

Mafikeng Mail can reveal that according to the list about 82 members have been removed, expelled or deployed and various ANC structures along with all regional executive committees and all ANC branches have been disbanded.

The list circulated last week by the disgruntled group which include members of the disbanded provincial executive committee (PEC) and other senior ANC officials in the region also include the names of members whose removal is imminent.

In line to be removed, purged, expelled or redeployed is local government and traditional affairs MEC, Gordon Kegakilwe, Boitumelo Tshwene, agriculture, environment, conservation and rural development MEC, MEC of public works, roads and transport, Mahlakeng Mahlakeng and provincial Speaker, Nono Maloyi who have all been on the "PTT hunting list" for sometime.

Also waiting in the purging wings is Pinki Moloyi, Dr Kenneth Kaunda District executive mayor; Manketse Tlhape, Tswaing mayor and her municipal manager, Dakota Legoete.

Others include Comrade Moswelwa, the Makwasi Hills Whip and the Speaker, Noni Kgabi and Elizabeth Lethoko, Ditsobotla mayor. The list is part of a petition which the group announced they would present to the NEC next week after collecting thousands of signatures from different branches and regions in the province.

The statement from the group read:

"We submit a list of a systematic purging by the PTT including its related factional deployment and planned removals of cadres perceived not to be aligned to the preferred faction, or are aligned to the disbanded PEC.
